

Lorin Goldman Michaels
Certified Public Accountant
Bemel, Ross, & Klein LLP (retired)
Los Angeles, CA

Lorin is actively involved in philanthropic organizations and most recently served as Treasurer for the Cedars-Sinai Hospital Board of Governors where she remains involved in various capacities. She is an Honorary Board of Director for Our House Grief Support Center, having served on its Board of Directors and Finance Committee for many years.

Lorin recently retired from Bemel, Ross & Avedon, a business management firm in Los Angeles, supporting clients in the entertainment industry by managing their personal finances. Prior to this, Lorin was the Chief Financial Officer for a start-up media company, The Africa Channel, where she was primarily responsible for all financial reporting and planning including presenting to potential international investors. Before this, she was the Chief Financial Officer for International Media Group, a privately held media company.

Lorin has held various financial positions in the entertainment industry including ABC Family Channel, FOX Television Stations and the Walt Disney Company. She began her career at Arthur Andersen in Dallas, Texas.

Lorin received a B.B.A in Accounting from the University of Texas in Austin in 1988. She resides in Los Angeles with her two children.